Violation of Criminal Laws Policy

Persons employed by the Wicomico County Board of Education must not, by their actions, deeds or teachings, in any way encourage or condone the violation of any criminal laws. Such violations include but are not limited to; a felony, a crime involving a controlled dangerous substance, a crime of immorality, a child abuse offense, or any other offense which would in the sole discretion of the Wicomico County Board of Education appear to affect the fitness of that employee to perform the customary role for which they are employed. In the event that it is established to the satisfaction of the Board of Education that there has been any violation of such criminal laws by any school employee, that employee may be subject to discipline up to and including termination.
